

iHV Research Network Members Database

| Name | Email address | Research expertise/area of interest | Organisation |
|---------------------|--|--|--|
| Ann Caines | ann.caines@somerset.gov.uk | Health Visiting | South Somerset Council |
| Louise Wightman | louwightman66@gmail.com | Quality and competence in nursing practice and transition to practice education programmes | Maternal Child and Family Health Nurses Australia |
| Robin Williams | robin.williams10@nhs.net | Child development, public health | Hertfordshire Community NHS Trust |
| Angela Dobbins | Angela.Dobbins@york.gov.uk | Paternal and maternal mental health and wellbeing | City of York Council |
| Eileen Perrins | Eileen.Perrins@swft.nhs.uk | Local Researcher on Surviving Crying RCT Currently completing dissertation MSc Perinatal Mental Health | South Warwickshire University NHS Foundation Trust |
| Michael Fanner | Michael.fanner@spi.ox.ac.uk | Health visiting interventions and workforce development | University of Oxford |
| Louise Wolstenholme | louise.wolstenholme@nhs.net | Delivery of studies at site working as a Principal investigator Co-applicant on several grants (clinical expert voice) Research capacity & capability building role Current interest in supporting early career researchers roles/SCPHN students Lead a 0-19 Research Network (Yorkshire & Humber) and a local Community of Research Practice NIHR Nursing & Midwifery Clinical Fellow (Community role) NIHR Nursing & Midwifery - 70@70 Senior Nurse Research leader programme Public health research interest that impact health outcomes for babies, children, young people and families (e.g. parent-infant relationships, obesity, SEND) | Sheffield Children's NHSFT |
| Judith Marston | marstonjudith@gmail.com | Professional identity of health visitors in Scotland | University of Dundee |
| Aideen Gildea | a.gildea@qub.ac.uk | Parenting and Child Development (Parental/Infant Mental Health) Children's Social and Emotional Development Promoting school readiness and transition into school Safeguarding – preventing impairment of children's health and development | Queen's University, Belfast |

| Name | Email address | Research expertise/area of interest | Organisation |
|--------------------|--|---|---|
| Tina Barrows | tina.barrows@highland.gov.uk | Classic Grounded Theory/ Antenatal visit | Highland Council |
| Amy Dobson | amy.dobson@soton.ac.uk | Transition to parenthood and development of a parenting identity. Including 'good parenting' ideals, motherhood myth, idealised mothering, sociocultural and political aspects of parenting. I am developing work around 'good parent ideals' and their intersection with minority group status in particular in relation to model minority theory. If anyone would like to collaborate on this or similar, please do get in touch. | University of Southampton |
| Melanie Lord | melanie.lord@lincolnshire.gov.uk | Completed an MSc in Advanced Midwifery Practice. Enjoy undertaking qualitative and mixed methods research. Areas of interest included informed choice, trauma-based care and improving inequalities in child health. Exploring opportunities to commence doctoral studies on a part-time basis and publishing my MSc research. | Lincolnshire County Council |
| Pamela Simmons | pamela.simmons1@nhs.net | Prescribing & dermatology | Shropshire community NHS Trust |
| Dr Louise Wightman | louwightman66@gmail.com | Child and family health and wellbeing, quality and competence in clinical practice | Maternal Child and Family Health Nurses Australia |
| Titilayo Oshun | titilayo.oshun1@nhs.net | Impact of maternal/ paternal mental health on child development as well as Early intervention for children with additional needs. | Homerton Healthcare NHS trust |
| Rachael Drewery | rachael.drewery@phc.ox.ac.uk | Qualitative research, particularly conversation analysis. Health visitor - client communication Public health Lifestyle advice Capacity building in health visiting | Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford |
| Dawn Brenchley | d.brenchley@surrey.ac.uk | Completing a PhD with research focussed on the lived experiences of young fathers with childhood histories of domestic abuse | University of Surrey |
| Sarah Lawley | sarah.lawley@outlook.com | Research capacity building Research leadership Neurodivergence | Cheshire and Wirral Partnership NHS Trust, & Locala Health & Wellbeing |
| Ruth Fromow | Ruth.fromow@cornwall.gov.uk | Infant feeding generally. Concerned about lack of tongue tie research since 2003. | Cornwall Council |